

The Gregory Kunde Chorale offers aid to victims of Hurricane Katrina (October 5 2005)

A LITTLE HELP FROM YOUR FRIENDS

Seeing images of families wading through rising water, buildings flooded and alternately burning, pieces of people's lives strewn over miles and miles of devastation, we ask the question: what can we do to help? And we are mindful of our own blessings, at this time when so many are suffering.

In an effort to assist relief efforts in the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, The GREGORY KUNDE CHORALE will donate a portion of ticket sales from its first concert of this season to the American Red Cross. Come to hear "THE BRITISH ARE COMING! THE BRITISH ARE COMING!" featuring William Byrd's 16th century Mass for Five Voices, Ralph Vaughan Williams' legendary Toward The Unknown Region, and highlights from The Mikado and Pirates of Penzance of the famed duo of Gilbert and Sullivan. WXXI's own Simon Pontin will narrate.

For every ticket purchased, the Chorale will donate $1 to the American Red Cross. Additionally, The Chorale will match the entire amount raised at this first concert and send that donation to the relief efforts on behalf of The Chorale and the Rochester community. Please help us to help those in need.

The Chorale will perform on Sunday, October 16th at Saint Louis Church on Main Street in the village of Pittsford at 2:00PM.

Advance tickets for $10 are available at Parkleigh (215 Park Avenue) and by calling the Chorale Information Line at 585.377.7568. Tickets are $15 at the door. Admission for children under 12 is free and students with ID will be admitted for $8.
